HIGH PERFORMANCE

The path to business success demands vision, strategy, and often, an expert external perspective. Kreston FLS offers high-level consulting designed to support entrepreneurs in their early stages, and boards of directors and general management in making critical decisions for the growth, sustainability, and value optimization of their organizations.

Scope of service

- ◆ For Entrepreneurs: Advice on company formation, business model design, financial plans, initial capital search, and company incorporation.
- ◆ For Boards of Directors: Advice on corporate governance, strategic definition, risk management, performance evaluation, and succession planning.
- ◆ For General Management: Strategic planning, process improvement, profitability analysis, operational efficiency, mergers and acquisitions, and market expansion.
- ◆ Investment project evaluation and feasibility analysis.
- ◆ Company valuation for various purposes (buying/selling, restructuring, etc.).
- ◆ Development of robust business plans.
- ◆ Advisory and participation in boards of directors, finance, and audit committees.
- ◆ Corporate secretarial services: maintenance of minute books for assemblies, board meetings, shareholder/partner registries, capital movements, profit registries, inventories and balances, among others.
- ◆ Assignment of an expert Partner who will personally attend to each client.
- ◆ Cloud processing with secure access and user profile management.
- ◆ Backups and recovery time for emergency situations.
- ◆ Next-generation cybersecurity protection.

Kreston's three pillars

Sector Expertise

We bring specialized knowledge across multiple sectors, helping businesses solve complex financial challenges. Often, in large business transactions, business owners and managers are making decisions for the first time in real-time. Our team already understands the specific financial pressures of different sectors, enabling us to offer targeted advice that truly makes a difference for your organization.

Tailored Strategies

We don't use off-the-shelf solutions. Instead, we develop strategies specifically designed for your business objectives. By carefully analyzing your company's needs, market position, and growth potential, we create personalized recommendations that perfectly align with your goals.

Global Network

Our international team combines worldwide connections with local market insights. We provide comprehensive financial advisory services that transcend geographical barriers, helping your business navigate complex cross-border financial operations.

Why choose Kreston FLS?

Choosing a strategic partner for your operations in Mexico is a critical decision.

Choosing a strategic partner for your operations in Mexico is a critical decision. At Kreston FLS, we understand market complexities and the need for advice that combines global vision with deep local expertise.

For business owners and CEOs

We offer comprehensive "Turnkey" solutions that simplify your entry and operation in Mexico, permitting you to focus on strategy and growth, not bureaucracy. Our proactive approach and the assignment of an expert partner per client ensure your needs are met with maximum efficiency and discretion.

For accounting, tax, and finance professionals

We distinguish ourselves by accuracy, regulatory compliance, and the ability to adapt to various international accounting and tax frameworks (NIF, USGAAP, IFRS). With cutting-edge technology and cloud processing, we guarantee data security, ad hoc reporting, and operational resilience, vital for modern financial management.

For governance and firm selection responsables

Kreston FLS is part of a global network recognized for its quality and rigorous standards. As members of the Forum of Firms, we adhere to International Quality Control Standards and the IESBA Code of Ethics, offering audits and advice with the highest credibility. Our 24/7 global responsiveness and experience in diverse sectors ensure seamless service for local and international operations. At Kreston FLS, we don't just know the rules; we build trusting relationships that drives your success.
